

2018 CONFERENCE

PHILADELPHIA, PA • OCTOBER 21-23

Hosted by Philadelphia's own
Theater Ariel

Legendary Performer Tovah Feldshuh, Honoree: Theodore Bikel Award for Excellence in Jewish Theatre (star of Golda's Balcony, the longest-running one woman show in Broadway history, and now featured in CW Network's award winning Crazy Ex- Girlfriend)

Adam Kantor, Keynote Address (currently in Tony award winning, The Band's Visit)

Jacqueline Goldfinger, nationally acclaimed playwright leading a special playwright's workshop

Paul Meshejian, Artistic Director, PlayPenn (the theatre that developed Os/0), featured panelist on "New Play Development"

JOIN THEATRE-MAKERS FROM NORTH AMERICA AND ABROAD

MAKING NEW JEWISH THEATRE IN 2018 — AND THE FUTURE!

- The Alliance for Jewish Theatre (AJT) brings together theatres, theatre-artists, and others promoting the creation, presentation, and preservation of theatrical endeavors by, for, and about the Jewish experience.
- The conference will feature a playwright and solo performers showcase, panel presentations, and hands-on workshops.
- AJT also celebrates emerging and young Jewish theatre makers 21-36 of age through its AJT Theatremachers program.
- To register <http://alljewishtheatre.org/conference/>
- Artistic Partners include Theatre Philadelphia and theatre companies PlayPenn, InterAct, Simpatico, Azuka, and Inis Nua.

---

I can sum up my goals for this AJT conference in one word - NEW! By drawing from incredible Philadelphia theatre companies we will engage in new play development, learn best practices, and have a safe space for new conversations on multiculturalism and social justice in the theatre, to challenge us and to explore making new Jewish theatre in 2018 and for the future!

- Deborah Baer Mozes, Artistic Director, Theatre Ariel

---

The Covenant Foundation is a proud sponsor

The Covenant Foundation

For info on: joining AJT, attending the conference, the AJT Theatremachers, submitting work for a showcase, or public programs see alljewishtheatre.org